DEATH DANDERINE.

A maiden both lovely and fair
Bought a new-fangled "rat" for her hair.
Said her brother, to tease,
"Do you feed your 'rat' cheese?"
"No, a 'puft' and a 'roll' are his share."

The remains of a daughter of Mr. William Clutter were brought here yesterday and conveyed to the Stonelick Cemetery for interment.

The late arrival of the L. and N. pay car Saturday night was a heart-breaking disappointment to a number who were anxiously awaiting their glia.

The C. and O. officials have recovered the empty box that contained the whisky stolen the other night from a car standing in the West End Yard. The next and most important thing is to catch the fellows who stole the bug juice. They have their eyes set in a certain direction.

KRAETZER—IRWIN.

Mr. Jesse L. Kratzer, aged 38, Cincinnati, O., and Miss Martha E. Irwin, aged 23, Trinity, Lewis county, were married yesterday in the County Clerk's office, Judge C. D. Nawall officiating.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The new Postoffice ruling in regard to newspaper subscriptions goes into effect all over the United States on April 1st. Do not wait for a notice from the office. The label on your paper gives the date of your subscription. If you are not paid up to at least April 1st, 1908, attend to it now. Mail subscriptions must be paid in advance. This means that no one must expect the paper after he allows his subscription to expire. Please attend to this at once.

Governor Willson denies that he is suffering from a physical breakdown.

The fact that the L. and N. office sold here forty tickets yesterday to the 'Burg, is sufficient evidence that Maysville was well represented in Flamingburg Monday.

A bevy of ladies assembled at the Public Library the other day were talking of the propriety of establishing a Charity Ward in the Hayswood Hospital. Not a bad idea and would fill a long felt want. Suppose the ladies suggest the matter to the Board of Directors of the Hospital.

The river came to a stand last evening, after reaching 47 feet. It is on the down grade this morning, having receded 3 tenths. This is third time since January that the Ohio has developed a stage of 47 feet or more—47, 49 and 49.9 tenths. The third time generally winds up the ball in a series of events and let us hope this is the last effort, for this year at least, in the beautiful trying to spread itself out over the banks.

REACH'S 1908 GUIDE.

Raach's Official American League Guide for 1908, published by the A. J. Raach Company of Philadelphia, and edited by Mr. Francis C. Richter, of "Sporting Life," is out, and is, as usual, first in the field, thus making it the harbinger of the baseball season. It can be said without qualification that, excellent as all of the editions of the Raach Guide have been in recent years, the 1908 Raach Guide is the best hand book of the kind ever issued by this or any other publisher. The special distinction of the 1908 Guide is, next to the text, the superior quality of paper used and the number and beauty of the engravings furnished, the world's championship series being especially well endowed with splendid action pictures. The American League Guide for 1908 is in all respects a first class hand book of the National game and a decided credit to the American League and to the publishers, the Raach Company.

CASE ENDED

Pardon Bros. Fined $3 and Costs by Judge Whitaker Yesterday

When the contempt case of Pardon Bros. was called by Judge Whitaker in the Police Court yesterday afternoon, Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell arose and addressing the Court, in substance said:

"May it please Your Honor, I am here to represent the defendants, and wish to say that if an infraction has been committed against the dignity of the Court that I am the guilty one and not the gentlemen whom I represent. In making this admission I earnestly disavow any intent of disrespect to this honorable Court, having the high regard, as I do, for the law and its observance.

"When approached in regard to the matter I was otherwise engaged, and cursorily glanced over the paper. I inquired if they had consulted with another lawyer, and if so what was his opinion? Being answered in the affirmative, and that the advice was that they need not pay any attention to the summons, I then said, 'That is my opinion, too.'

"Under the circumstances, I feel that I am the one that should bear the burden and not Pardon Bros. I ask that Your Honor dismiss the defendants."

The above may not be verbatim et literalum, but the context is there just the same.

Judge Whitaker explicitly stated the nature of the offense and elaborated extensively on the law governing the same, and summed the whole by fining the defendants $3 and costs each.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yago of Fourth and Washington avenue, Newport entertained with a dinner in honor of their guests Mr. and Mrs. M. Donovan of Winchester, Ky. There were present Mr. and Mrs. J. C. At Cincinnati a few days ago United States Commissioner John McKenzie heard testimony in the case of Fred Scott of Pittsburgh and John Higgenbotham of Middleport, deckhands on the towboat Boaz, which recently struck a bridge pier below Ashland when five men were thrown into the water. Both men stated that they had become ill from the effects of the water and applied to Captain Gould for a ticket to the Marine Hospital in Cincinnati, when the boat reached Ludlow. They state that the ticket was refused. The defendants denied the statements of the men and said that they wished to leave the boat at the company's expense. Upon the suggestion of Commissioner Menzie, the men received the tickets admitting them to the Hospital.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Sarepta McClanahan, wife of M. T. McClanahan, died on Friday evening, the 20th day of March, at the home of her husband on the Calvert farm, just above this city.

This excellent couple have been citizens of Maysville and its vicinity for many years past. No couple in our community has been more highly esteemed or had more friends. The large concourse of people which assembled on Sunday afternoon at her funeral attested the regard with which she was held.

Mrs. McClanahan left one daughter, Mrs. Ott Hoferkamp, who resides in Spokane, Washington, who was unable to be present at the funeral, not being well enough to make the long journey.

Mrs. McClanahan had been in failing health for some time, but her death at last came as a shock, her husband and immediate family not realizing her condition until a day or two before the end.

Mr. McClanahan and the daughter and relatives of the deceased all have the sympathy of their large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

A FRIEND.

OUR SPRING CLOTHING!

In all sincerity we want to say that our this season's Clothing for Men and young men merits your fullest confidence and enthusiastic approval. There is every reason why you should see these goods and be convinced in your own mind that no other store has anything equal to our products in thorough workmanship, perfect fit style and values. In this season's purchases we have brought out all the strong points required to give each suit individuality, and when you see these goods you will agree with us, that we have used no words of extravagant praise about our merchandise. We are showing all the new things in Men's Furnishings, Fancy Vests, Hats, &c.

Our Shoe Department, like our Clothing—nothing but the best—the Crossette, the Stetson, the two best makes on the market.
